

School of Visual Studies
University of Missouri

MIZZOU

ON VIEW:

This pop-up exhibition by current student, Kylee Isom will be on view at:

Lost in the Woods Farmers Market and Local Artist Showcase
931 Missouri Avenue | St. Robert, MO

Thursday, September 30, 2021
4:30-7:30pm

About the Artist:

Kylee Isom is originally from West Plains, MO and is a photographer and artist currently working towards a BFA at the University of Missouri in Columbia.

Isom is interested in photography as a means of navigating the tangled notions of gender stereotypes, body, and the fabrication of identity.

Sunday Best, 2021

Art on the Move

AOM gives real-life experiences to SVS students and alumni, providing hands-on professional career-building opportunities by returning them to their Missouri hometowns or home regions to share their art with others. MU's School of Visual Studies' students, alumni, and faculty are some of the best and brightest rising stars in the visual arts field and play an instrumental part in recruiting the next generation of SVS students.

In Partnership With:

Thanks to the contributions of:

Lost in the Woods, LLC

ART
on the
MOVE