

smART Moves! is an arts intensive summer camp for teens presented by the University of Missouri's School of Visual Studies and its community outreach program, Art on the Move, which will run June 20 - 24, 2022 from 8:45am - 4pm. The program is designed to give teens a real-life college experience through a fun and safe summer camp on Mizzou's beautiful Columbia, MO campus. Students will learn college level skills over a week-long intensive which can be taken as a day camp or overnight camp experience. Meal plans are available for day campers. Dorm stay and meal plans included for overnight campers. All campers are invited to attend a welcome event on June 19th and a closing reception on June 24th with friends and family.

Camp schedule:

- 7:00 - 8:30am - Breakfast available
- 8:45 - 9:00am - Campers arrive to first class
- 9:00am - 12:00pm - Morning Session
- 12:00pm - 1:00pm - Lunch
- 1:00pm - 4:00pm - Afternoon Session
- 4:00pm - Day camp released
- 4:00 - 9:00pm - Overnight camp activities and Dinner
- 9:00pm - Overnight camp curfew

Classes: (each student chooses two - a morning and afternoon session)

Alternative Processes & Darkroom Printing taught by Savannah Calhoun - 9am - 12pm

Students will work with various historic photographic alternative process media including cyanotype and anthotype as well as darkroom printing and photograms. (Photography)

Comic Book Creation taught by Lisa Simms - 9am - 12pm

Using iPads and professional illustration software, students will learn the essentials of visual storytelling through story boarding, character design and color! This class will guide students step by step to create a complete comic. (Drawing)

Papermaking and Artist Books taught by Marina Cano - 1pm - 4pm

This class will guide students through the process of creating handmade paper, various surface design treatments and basic artist book construction. (Fibers)

Collaborative Sculptural Tile Mural taught by Sean Lofton - 1pm - 4pm

Using common craft materials, students in this class will create individual tiles and decorate them through painting and relief sculpture. The completed tiles will fit together to create a collaborative patterned tile mural. (3D)

Pricing (All registrations include a $50 non-refundable fee in the cost):

$350 - Day Camp (includes morning and afternoon classes)

$425 - Day Camp + Meal Card that covers breakfast and lunch

$599 - Overnight Camp (includes dorm stay, three meals per day card, and two classes)

To Register Visit: <https://visualstudies.missouri.edu/smart-moves>

Questions? Email Madeleine LeMieux mml7nt@umsystem.edu